

Abstract

We investigate several families of means interpolating between the geometric and arithmetic means and find the one providing the best convergence of $$\left(1 + \frac{1}{n}\right)^{\mathcal{M}_t(n+1, n)}$$

to Euler's number.